Wichita Falls Municipal Judge to Retire

Wichita Falls, Texas – Wichita Falls Municipal Court Judge Larry Gillen has announced he will be retiring later this year. Judge Gillen has been on the Municipal Court bench since 1985.

His service to the Wichita Falls judicial system is unmatched. It is estimated that he has presided over more than 173,000 proceedings in his 37 years on the bench.

He was hired in 1984 as an Assistant City Attorney and less than a year later was appointed Municipal Judge.

Judge Gillen says it has been an honor to have served this community.

His final day as Wichita Falls Municipal Judge will be on July 29, 2022.
