Wichita Falls Free Concert Series Continues Tuesday Night

Wichita Falls, Texas –The City of Wichita Falls Parks and Recreation Department invites you to our 2022 Outdoor Concert Series. El Chanclazo will be performing on Tuesday, April 19, 2022 at Bud Daniel Park - 900 Ohio Ave. Wichita Falls, TX 76301. The concert will be from 7:00 p.m. - 8:30 p.m.

Formed in the DFW in 2019, El Chanclazo is a musical collective that is made up of various musicians of Latin American that is specialized in performing a variety of Latin American musical genres. Co-lead by Mariana Grahl (vocals) and Pepe Valdez (guitar and musical director), El Chanclazo is committed to rescuing a specific repertoire that they consider is important to perform and that they enjoy playing.

Working their way through boleros, vales, rancheras, sones, rumbas, huapangos and chacareras, El Chanclazo tries to bring to its audience the experience of a night of what they call “Bohemia”. When Mariana and Pepe met in 2019, they realized that their musical backgrounds had a common element. Despite Mariana being from northern Mexico and Pepe from Lima, Perú, both of their musical traditions worked around beautiful compositions, groups of friends, food and a true love for each one’s own music and culture. Bringing the best of each one’s background, Mariana and Pepe started working on developing a repertoire that is varied and significant to each one and composed of music that they love and care for.

The Parks & Recreation Outdoor Concert Series features musicians representing a variety of musical genres. Come out and join the fun with your family and friends. Bring a lawn chair or blanket and enjoy an evening of free entertainment. For questions, please contact the Recreation Division at 940-761-7490.
